

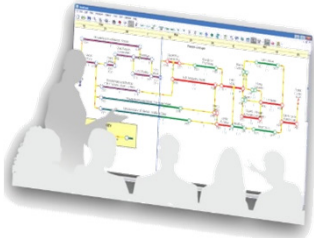

GRAPHICAL PATH PLANNING

OVERVIEW

An innovative and visual approach to Project Planning, ideal for collaborative planning workshops or high level summary schedule development.

Identifies critical paths in real-time and communicates programmes effectively to all stakeholders

SERVICES

- Workshop facilitation
- Schedule development
- Schedule Risk Analyses
- Licensing & training
- User & Project support

SCHEDULE RISK ANALYSIS

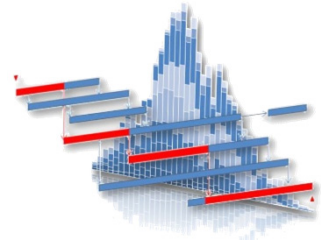

OVERVIEW

Schedule Risk Analysis is a method for analysing and managing time related risks against project schedules

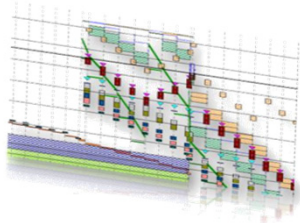

Use Schedule Risk Analysis to determine levels of confidence of achieving milestones, identify driving time risks and driving critical paths

SERVICES

- Schedule development and validation for analyses
- Identification & review of time risks by workshops or interviews
- Analyses, reporting and review

TIME LOCATION REPORTING

OVERVIEW

A graphical representation of schedules suited to linear projects such as railways, roads, tunnels and pipelines.

Efficiently presents key sequences, clashes, issues, resourcing or entire programmes on a single chart.

SERVICES

- Schedule preparation for graphical presentation
- Scenario & progress comparisons
- Licensing & training
- User & Project support

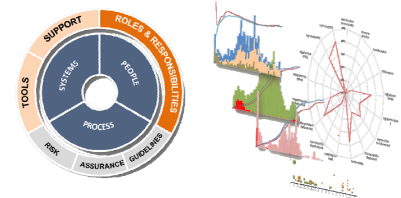

PROJECT PLANNING, PROGRAMMING / SCHEDULING

CAPABILITIES

- Strategic development of Planning capabilities in areas of Standards, Processes, Knowledge Management, Tools and Systems, and Maturity Assessments

ASSURANCE

- Independent review of Programmes / Schedules for a project, including technical review, assumptions, alignment, accuracy, effectiveness

ABOUT

Established by Santosh Bhat, a Civil Engineer and Certified Planning and Scheduling Professional (AACEi) with over 15 years experience in Project Planning and Controls over a diverse range of engineering and construction projects.

LOCATION

Based in Sydney, Australia.

CONTACT

Santosh Bhat

+61 458 473 823

santosh@auaspp.com.au

www.austprojplan.com.au

